

Confab Here Pushes Plan

As a result of last weekend's student government conference at Wartburg, a proposal has been drawn up to establish a national association of Lutheran colleges.

According to Student Body Vice Pres. Roger Lageschulte, the proposal would involve 40 Lutheran colleges. The organizational meeting would be held at Augustana College, Rock Island, Ill., in October 1960.

THIS CORRESPONDS with the annual session of the Association of Lutheran College Faculty. The theme for the faculty conference, also to be held at Augustana, will be "Some of My Best Friends Are Students."

"This will certainly put Wartburg on the map because the proposal and summary of the student government conference are sent to every Lutheran college in the United States," stated Lageschulte.

IF ORGANIZED, the Lutheran College Association would meet on the same campus and at the same time as the faculty group.

Development of this proposal, according to Lageschulte, depends on the support received from the colleges which would be included. Wartburg is assuming initial responsibilities.

On The Brink

HIGH SCHOOL seniors Kathleen Nelson and Gaile Winkleman, both from Watertown, Wis., talk near the fish pond during a break in High School Visitation Day events.

The annual event brought a record-breaking total of 764 guests to campus. If Kathleen and Gaile are freshmen next year, they will become quite familiar with the fish pond.

Prexies, Senators Chosen For '60-61

Class presidents and senators for the 1960-61 school year were elected during the past week.

Students Invited To Iowa Ashram

All Wartburg students are invited to the Iowa Regional Ashram held at Camp Ingawanis near Waverly this weekend, according to Larry Nelson, Lutheran Student Association prexy.

Lutheran students from nearly all colleges and universities in Iowa are attending this year's Ashram, which began yesterday. Dr. Karl Reusch of Gustavus Adolphus College will present a series of short lectures today on the role of the modern Christian.

The Rev. Herman Diers, Wartburg chaplain, will lead a panel discussion on "The Life and Mission of the Church" immediately following the banquet today.

Concluding the activities Sunday morning will be a communion service at 8 conducted by the Rev. Robert Dell and breakfast at 9:30.

The only office yet to be chosen is Homecoming chairman. Election date is next Thursday in convocation with nomination deadline Tuesday. The chairman may be from any class.

CHOSEN TO lead the senior class is Dave Grube, Waverly. Grube is a member of Alpha Chi, president of Beta Beta Beta and a National Merit winner.

Bob Albers, currently serving as chairman of the Student Welfare Committee of Senate and sophomore class president, will head the junior class. Albers is from Walters, Minn.

Freshmen voted Ronald Beckman, Waltham, Minn., to serve as sophomore president for the next school term. Beckman was a member of Senate first semester.

SENATE MEMBERS representing the senior class will be Bob Boettcher, Appleton, Wis.; Tom Christensen, Cedar Falls; and Grace Jahn, Sheboygan, Wis.

Junior members include Art Baker, Waterloo; Tom Kuckkahn, Watertown, Wis.; and Darlene Nintz, Jackson, Wis.

Joyce Brenke, Belle Plaine, Minn.; Jan Horne, Kristiansand S., Norway; and Phil Truckenbrod, Winterset, were chosen as sophomore Senators.

New senators, plus the newly elected Student Body officers, will meet for the first time Monday night. Their ranks will be completed next fall when the freshman class elects its representatives.

Two To Join Faculty

Two instructors have been added to the Wartburg faculty for next year, according to Dr. J. O. Chellevold, dean of faculty.

Marjorie Sowatsky, a native of Saginaw, Mich., will replace Faith Bueltmann in the Wartburg English Department.

Miss Sowatsky received her B.A. from Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, Ind., in 1958, graduating Summa Cum Laude. She is presently serving as a graduate intern in the English Department at Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, where she will receive her M.A. degree this summer.

Nancy Mista, a 1958 Wartburg graduate, has been added to the Physical Education Department at Wartburg. Miss Mista will replace Miss Adeline Langrock.

Miss Mista earned her M.A. degree from Colorado State College, Greeley, Colo. She is currently teaching physical education at the Humboldt Community High School at Humboldt.

Meets, Ohlrogge For Convo Fare

The Faculty and Student Body will hold meetings on Tuesday during the convocation period.

On Thursday Dr. Theodore A. Ohlrogge of Appleton, Wis., will speak. His theme is "Your Christ—Dead?—or Alive?" Dr. Ohlrogge is the president of the Wisconsin District, ALC. Also featured on Thursday will be the Castle Singers.

KARL'S A LADIES' MAN

Janitor Works In Centennial

By Grace Jahn

"Man on first!"

When a girl living in Centennial Hall hears this cry, she can be fairly certain that Karl Oetting will be on the other side of the door.

Karl, as he is known to the girls, has been the janitor for Centennial Hall "ever since it was built." He has been working for the college for the past 15 years.

Besides the nearly full-time job in Centennial, Karl also handles the janitorial duties for Old Main.

"I'm well satisfied with my work," said Karl. "I like to cooperate with the girls and help them whenever I can," he added.

The day begins at 5:30 a.m. for Karl when he unlocks the doors and ends with the same chore at 5 p.m.

"I open and lock the 'escape doors,'" explained Karl. "The housemothers take care of the other ones."

Although Karl explains his job as mostly routine, he is often called upon to do a variety of chores. The girls list their problems and complaints in a "trouble book" which Karl checks every morning as he is making his rounds.

What kinds of problems do the girls have? "Anything you could imagine," laughed Karl.

This includes burned out lights, broken venetian blinds, the need for drapery hooks, closet doors off their runners and screens that come off so easily and are so hard to put back.

"I want to say," said Karl, "that whenever I need a little help, the girls are always ready to give a hand."

Karl's most unusual experience happened just last week. Over a hundred girls in North

Karl

Centennial presented Karl with a birthday gift and card.

"I'm very thankful."

Karl spends what spare time he does have on one of his interests — woodworking. His home evidences his handiwork in the form of tables and cupboards.

"My real hobby would be livestock, because I had farmed for 30 years," mused Karl.

Karl has a philosophy.

"I would rather please than discourage."

That's Karl, the janitor who gets lonesome for the bustle of college life in the summer. That's Karl, the man on first.

Dance, Dinner Ducats Sold

Tickets for the junior-senior banquet and all-school prom May 14 will go on sale Monday.

The prom tickets are $3.00 per couple if purchased in advance and $3.50 at the door, according to Tom Maik, ticket chairman. The banquet tickets will be $1.50 apiece.

The Henry Charles Orchestra from Austin, Minn., will provide music for the prom from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

The Rev. E. A. Schick, Christianity Department, will be the banquet speaker, according to Deanna Stob, program chairman. Robert Smith, Speech Department, will act as master of ceremonies, and Dr. Karl T. Schmidt, Christianity Department, will give the invocation.

Menu for the banquet will include swiss steak with pie for dessert.

According to Co-chairmen Cathy Carr and David Grube, the decorations for both events will include park benches, fountains and flowers in keeping with the general theme, "Noc-turne," in a spring evening garden.

Omen Portends Good

Two weekends ago three Lutheran bodies merged to form The American Lutheran Church. Last Wednesday 764 people, the largest number in history, attended Wartburg's annual High School Visitation Day.

What's the connection, if any?

The merger gave Wartburg eight sister schools, two of them — Luther College in Decorah and St. Olaf in Northfield, Minn. — practically next door.

Before the merger, Wartburg was one of four American Lutheran Church schools. The others — Capitol University, Columbus, Ohio; Texas Lutheran, Sequin, Tex.; and Pacific Lutheran, Parkland, Wash. were healthy distances away.

The fear had been voiced that having more Lutheran schools of the exact same variety in the neighborhood would cut Wartburg's enrollment. However, if interest is any indication, the "college of our brightest days" will not be left out when ever-increasing numbers of students are parceled out in Septembers to come.

The number of people visiting campus far surpassed the Admissions Department's first estimates of between four and six hundred. Evidently, Admissions did an excellent job of getting students to visit Wartburg.

And applications for next year are running ahead of those for last year, which boasted the largest freshman class in Wartburg history.

It would appear that Wartburg does not need to worry about a diminishing Student Body. Although there is more competition for church-affiliated students, there is also a larger area, church-wise, to draw from.

How the merger will affect Wartburg, enrollment-wise, remains to be seen. The huge High School Visitation attendance directly after the merger may have been pure coincidence, but it most certainly is not a bad omen.

Wartburg does not need to fear comparison with other schools. It most certainly is not perfect, but at least it's working on it.

Parents Have Their Day

Today is Parents Day at Wartburg. This is the time to show the folks their investment.

Like many students in the United States today, Wartburgers are getting a better education than their parents. At the turn of the century, a person with a high school diploma was well educated. Now a college degree is a must.

A spot survey of 30 Wartburg students shows that out of 60 parents, only 16 had any education beyond high school. Twenty-four had gone no further than eighth grade.

It is an encouraging sign, usually merely accepted, that the trend in the United States is persistently upward. If the parents of Wartburg students had adopted the "what was good enough for me is good enough for my kid" attitude, Wartburg College would be cut down to less than one-fourth of its present size.

On more personal terms, where would you be if your parents had not sent you to college? Would you have worked your way through? Of course, a number of students do, but it's a lot harder than having a fat check from home once a semester. Carrying the questions further, where would you be 20 years from now if you hadn't gone to college?

They're interesting questions with even more interesting answers.

Hats off to the parents, too often taken for granted, who have the foresight to give their children something better than they themselves had!

LLM

No wonder there are so many frustrated college students — they can't get the room they want, their presidential candidate isn't elected, Outfly never gets here, they can't see the fish in the fish pond, ad infinitum.

How many mothers' dreams of careful upbringing were shattered yesterday when they looked into closets and under beds?

Seniors from the high schools got a real orientation to Wartburg life when they attended that long convocation program!

Freshmen are beginning to think that Spring Outfly is just a myth prefabricated by upperclassmen.

Question: What are sidewalks for?
Campus Cutter: Others.

UNITED WE FALL?

Criticisms Unwelcome Before Merger; What About Dissatisfaction In TALC?

By Norm Remmers

Before the merger which created The American Lutheran Church, it was very unpopular to criticize the merger. To do so would open oneself to charges of having a narrow loyalty and of having an unpromising attitude.

In a democratic society we thrive on criticism and open discussion. Could some of the dissatisfaction we now find have been avoided had criticism been welcomed? It seems significant that there was more open discussion of what the name of the new merged church should be than of church policies.

Remmers

The pastors and lay people of our congregations are not really affected by the merger. The distinction of belonging to a larger church is worth any inconveniences the merger might have caused.

The church institutions will be greatly affected by the merger. This includes Wartburg College. The Evangelical Lutheran Church has borrowed money so it could build facilities for its colleges as they were needed. The American Lutheran Church required its colleges to build on a pay-as-you-go basis, thereby slowing up the growth and advancement of the colleges.

But are the ALC and the United Evangelical Lutheran Church members now required to help pay a debt the ELC incurred?

Mid Knight March

By Bob Solete

Among the staff members of the Trumpet in the past years there has always been a friendly rivalry over favorite baseball teams. Nothing much has been said so far this year.

I guess the St. Louis Card and Chicago Cub fans have given up trying to remain loyal. You may as well face it, if the Braves don't take it, the Giants or Dodgers will.

For those of you who have been doing some wild guessing; no, Bob Boettcher is not writing this column. You can give him credit (or blame) for doing it the first semester but not now. Guess again!

★ ★ ★ ★
I heard a rumor that we weren't going to get an Outfly this spring. That would be a catastrophe that could only be matched by the chapel-auditorium burning down.

★ ★ ★ ★
Fred Miller wore his bermudas last Wednesday. Now I have seen everything.

Be good to yourselves by being good to others.

curred and benefited from before the merger? Will the building programs on non-ELC colleges be halted until this debt is paid?

In the past the ALC agencies, such as the children's homes, have interpreted their program directly to the people and have received most of their support directly from the people.

Now most contributions to the homes are to be channeled through the central church organization. These homes will then lose contact with the people. Possibly as a result, the people will lose interest in the homes.

It was evident throughout the merger that the ELC was consistently voting as a block for their own men and their own measures.

Consequently our headquarters are in Minneapolis, our new president and the heads of the various committees, with a few exceptions, are from the ELC and the church's program follows the ELC pattern.

There was speculation among the convention delegates on whether the ALC and the UELC were being merged or "submerged."

"There is strength in unity" may be correct, but are we paying for this strength with freedom?

The new president indicated at the closing services on Sunday night, "Doctrinally the new merged church will be conservative."

Does such a dogmatic statement narrow the freedom of theological study we now find in our colleges and seminaries?

All this leads one to believe that there should have been a longer engagement period of fellowship and harmony where these problems could have been naturally worked out. Now that the marriage has been completed, the solutions must be forced.

We have replaced the "unity in Christ" we find common to all Christians with a narrow, outward "unity of merger." Is a merger necessary when there is a respect and harmony among all Christians brought about by a "unity in Christ?" With this broader perspective as our goal, we can rise above petty differences and look at the future of The ALC optimistically.

Exchange Student Reports

By Faith Dettmann

BONN, GERMANY — Grupe aus Bonn am Rhein!

While activities at Wartburg point toward the end of a year and graduation, the students here are preparing for the summer semester which begins in May. Generally, the winter semester begins in November and ends in February. The summer session usually runs through July.

The average student has about 22 hours of classes, and exams are not given. After more specialized courses, the student receives a certificate for work completed.

The courses are recorded in a "studien buch" for registration and permanent reference. At the end of the semester, the student must obtain the corresponding professor's signature in the book.

However, he only has to attend one lecture to obtain the signature, which makes the course official. Student participation in the lower courses exists, so to say, hardly at all.

Bonn University had an enrollment of about ten thousand last semester. Of these, one thousand were foreign students, and 64 were from the United States.

Dormitories are inadequate, with only one for girls and two for boys under the jurisdiction of the university. The average student lives in a rented room as cheaply as he can.

Student life is, in general, liberal and the students themselves are quite independent. With no hours to keep, schedules can be very flexible. Most of the students are proportionately several years older than they are in the United States.

Needless to say, studying is most interesting, and I am looking forward to the beginning of the summer semester.

(Ed's. note: Miss Dettmann, a junior at Wartburg last year, is currently studying biology and chemistry at the University of Bonn, Germany, under a full-year scholarship exchange program. According to the stipulations of the program, a student from Bonn will study at Wartburg in the near future.)

Knights Host Simpson Today

Weather permitting, Wartburg will tangle with Simpson in a doubleheader here this afternoon. Game time is set at 1:30.

Jim Borcharding is slated to take the hill in the first game with Al Exner behind the plate. Coach Oppermann plans to put Marv Ott on the mound in the second game. Senior Rog Zehr will be in right field in an effort to add power to the lineup.

Tuesday the Knights travel to Storm Lake where they run into powerful Buena Vista. The game which was previously scheduled as a night game will be played at 2 p.m.

LUTHER COLLEGE of Decorah hit the Knights for six runs in the ninth inning Wednesday to spoil what looked like a Senior Day win as they edged out a 7-6 victory.

Wartburg hit Norse starter Clay Lyon for two runs in the first and four runs in the second to take a 6-0 early lead. Consecutive singles by Marv Ott, Fred Mai and Arlyn Saathoff, after two were out, accounted for the two in the first.

In the second inning Terry Exner and Derald Gourley walked and Jim Borcharding was hit by a pitch to load the bases. Kermit Urbain then beat out a slow roller that scored Exner. Don Sowers forced Gourley at the plate before Ott's grounder to third was booted. Mai then belted a double to score Urbain and Sowers.

AT THIS POINT Ken Crider replaced Lyon for the Norse and held the Knights scoreless the final seven innings.

Luther first scored in the eighth on a hit and an outfield error. Ott, who had replaced Borcharding in the seventh, opened the ninth by allowing two hits and a walk. An error by Sowers on the throw to first and another hit brought in Hein.

Exner then muffed a double play ball and two consecutive hits ended Hein's stint as the Norse erupted with a 7-6 lead.

Coach Oppermann then brought in Dean Zimmerman who retired the side by fanning two while walking one. Hein suffered the loss for the Knights and Crider got the win for Luther. Wartburg is now 3-2 in conference play.

Softball Washed Out Both Scheduled Days

"Rain, rain, go away, so little Johnny can go out and play," was the sentiment of intramural softball enthusiasts last week.

All games were rained out on both Monday and Thursday afternoons. There was only one new development. Another team was organized by junior George Lueder to make the number of teams eight, the number desired, according to Romaine Foege, co-chairman in charge of intramural softball.

The team is chiefly a mixture of Grossmann and Off-campus boys who "just like to play softball."

Games scheduled for last Monday will be played next Monday, weather permitting.

DERALD GOURLEY, Knight catcher, reaches home a little late as he is forced by Don Sowers' slow grounder to third base in the second inning of Wednesday's game with Luther.

Although Wartburg led 3-0 at this time, the Norsemen's six-run uprising in the ninth inning downed the Knights 7-6.

Thinclads Journey

By Tom Kuckkahn

Knight tracksters trek to Rock Island, Ill., today, to participate in the Viking Olympics.

The teams which comprise the field are all Lutheran schools from the Midwest. Last year St. Olaf, Luther, Wartburg, Carthage, Augustana, Gustavus Adolphus, Augsburg and Valparaiso competed.

St. Olaf was victorious, Luther placed second and the Knights managed third. All indications show that the same schools will be entered this year, although there is some doubt as to entrance of Augsburg.

Tuesday the Knights trek to Winona, Minn., to clash with the Winona State cindersmen, who last year defeated the Knights 68-63.

Coach Ax Bundgaard's thinclads made a favorable impression upon the visiting high school seniors Wednesday afternoon as they downed Platteville State 79-50.

Veterans John Niemeyer, Eddie Skay and Chuck Wallin paced the Knights as they each won two events.

The Knights wasted no time in pulling into the lead as they piled up many points in the field events, their strong point this year.

Gerald Buckler tossed the shot 43' 3 1/2" to place first in that event. Leonard Schmidt boosted himself 5' 10" in the high jump, but had to be satisfied with a first-place tie with Clyde Wells of Platteville.

Chuck Wallin sent the discus in flight 138' 2 1/2" to take top position in that event while bettering his own school record by one inch. Wallin also won the javelin throw with a heave of 161' 6", good enough for a first place tie with Jim Wejmann of Platteville.

Fred Lichte, fastly improving freshman, was a pleasant surprise in the 440 and 880. He was clocked at 52.2 in the 440 and came in a strong second in the half-mile.

Eddie Skay, speedy dashman, headed the field in the 220 with a time of 23.1 and also broke the tape first in the 100 yard dash.

John Niemeyer ran an excellent 16.4 in the 120 high hurdles to bring home another first. Niemeyer also won the 220 yard low hurdles.

Last weekend a number of Knights competed in the Drake Relays, but failed to place among the winners in the highly formidable field.

Wartburg Golfers Play Loras Here

A successful golf squad will pit its 3-1 record against Loras today at the Waverly golf course. The season has been highlighted by wins over Dubuque, Buena Vista and ISTC with the only defeat coming at the hands of ISTC in their latest meeting.

Following an opening April 20 win at Dubuque the linksters moved to Buena Vista where they took one with a 12-2 margin. The entire squad posted wins, with Stan Salzman making low score of 74.

Following this, the squad moved to ISTC where it posted an 8-7 win. However, in a return meeting this last Tuesday, it was defeated by the same squad by an identical score of 8-7. Winners for Wartburg in this outing were John Osbrink and Stan Salzman, with Bill Barnett getting a tie.

Next week the linksters face Luther both at Waverly and Decorah. They tee off here Wednesday and there Saturday.

More Trackmen Win At IC, ISTC Meets

Complete results from the Iowa Conference and the Iowa State Teachers College Relays were not previously reported in the Trumpet.

In the ISTC meet, the 440 and 880 relay teams each placed fifth. Leonard Schmidt tied for fifth in the high jump.

In the Conference meet, Wartburg took second in the 440 relay, fourth in the sprint medley relay and fifth in the low hurdle shuttle relay, in addition to winning the 880 relay.

Netsters Travel To Loras Match

Wartburg netsters plan to travel to Loras this afternoon.

By winning all but one of the matches, the Luther Norsemen defeated the Wartburg tennis squad 8-1 Wednesday. The only match won by the Knights was the number three doubles played by Harold Olesen and Bob Dies.

In the singles matches, Speed defeated Larry Mugridge 6-3, 6-3 in the first match. Dick Jebesen then fell to Zimmer 6-2, 6-1. Next, Thorsen and Miller defeated Ron Hart and Dave Braunschweig 6-4, 6-0, and 7-5, 3-6, 6-4, respectively.

In the final two singles matches Olesen and Dies were defeated by Nordhem and Ber-ven by scores of 6-1, 4-6, 6-4, and 6-4, 6-3.

In the doubles the number one team of Jebesen and Hart was defeated by Speed and Thorsen 6-2, 6-0. In the following number two match, Simmering and Bervin defeated Mugridge and Braunschweig, 7-5, 6-2. This was followed by the number three match in which Wartburg proved victorious.

These are the silver wings of a U. S. Air Force Navigator. As a flying officer on the Aerospace team, he has chosen a career of leadership, a career that has meaning, rewards and executive opportunity.

The Aviation Cadet Program is the gateway to this career. To qualify for this rigorous and professional training, a high school diploma is required; however, two or more years of college are highly desirable. Upon completion of the program the Air Force encourages the new officer to earn his degree so he can better handle the responsibilities of his position. This includes full pay and allowances while taking off-duty courses under the Bootstrap education program. The Air Force will pay a substantial part of all tuition costs. After having attained enough credits so that he can complete course work and residence requirements for a college degree in 6 months or less, he is eligible to apply for temporary duty at the school of his choice.

If you think you have what it takes to earn the silver wings of an Air Force Navigator, see your local Air Force Recruiter. Ask him about Aviation Cadet Navigator training and the benefits which are available to a flying officer in the Air Force. Or fill in and mail this coupon.

There's a place for tomorrow's leaders on the Aerospace Team.

Six Wartburgers At Drama Meet

Six Wartburg people attended the drama conference held April 29 and 30 at the State University of Iowa, Iowa City.

Sophomore Don Ehlers; junior Bob Rosenberg; seniors Delores Garrett, Nancy Crossman and Dick Ferries; and Vernon Lestrud, Speech Department, attended the two day affair, which started Friday morning.
